

BIOECONOMY AND BUBBLES AT CuttingEdge2018

WHAT IS BIOECONOMY ALL ABOUT?

If you ask people what bioeconomy is all about, only few can answer. That's a pity, because in our ignorance we take the risk of missing enormous opportunities!

How big are the opportunities deriving from the bioeconomy? And how do we get started? Learn all about the unutilized possibilities in the bioeconomy when representatives from the bio-industry meet in a panel discussion at the Cutting Edge-festival on the 25th of September.

Date and Time: September 25th, 13.30-14.30
